

Request for Restriction of Personal Data Processing

Dear Sirs,
in accordance with Article 18 of the General Data Protection Regulation¹ I exercise my right to restrict personal data processing. I exercise this right because:

- I deny the precision of the personal data processed
- I believe that the processing is unlawful and instead of erasure I request the restriction of processing of my personal data
- I need the personal data to determine, exercise or defend my legal claims, despite the fact that you no longer need to process the personal data as a controller
- I objected to the processing of my personal data

Specifications of the request (here you can state more detailed reasoning for your request or the list of personal data to which your request relates):

So that you can correctly deal with my request, I am informing you of my identification details:
